All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God (Rom 3:23)

The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord (Rom 6:23)

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die—but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us (Rom 5:6-8)

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin so that in him we might become the righteousness of God (2 Cor 5:21)

If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, “Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame.”...The same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For “everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be save” (Rom 10:9-13).

Whoever comes to me I will never cast out (John 6:37)

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold the new has come (2 Cor 5:17).

Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls (Matt 11:28-29).

There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus (Rom 8:1).

Everyone has sinned and broken God’s laws. Because the penalty for sin is death, each of us deserves to spend eternity in hell in separation from God. We are totally incapable of achieving heaven on our own. There is no way we can be good enough to attain forgiveness from sin or achieve eternal life by our own works.

God so loved the world that He gave His only son, Jesus Christ, to rescue us from our sin. Jesus died on the cross, was buried, and rose again on the third day. He paid the penalty for our sin and took the punishment that we deserved.

Forgiveness and the free gift of eternal life is offered to anyone who will repent of their sin, and believe in Jesus Christ as their Savior. Redemption is wholly by the blood of Christ, and salvation is by grace, through faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

A true child of God who is justified by the blood of Christ and sealed by the Holy Spirit is safe and exempt from God’s judgment and thus secure for eternity.
